Porcelain objects by Aldo Bakker for Sèvres
PAD Paris
27 – 30 March

French porcelain manufacturer Sèvres presents the final versions of the series of porcelain objects at PAD Paris. Each object questions the archetypical characteristics of the pourer: a container, a spout and a handle. These elements are enlarged, reduced, and merged, resulting in objects that give a suggestive representation of the act of pouring.

Georg Jensen & Aldo Bakker
presentation at Salone di Mobile
8 – 13 April

Four new pieces for Georg Jensen will be presented at Spazio Rossana Orlandi during the Salone di Mobile in Milan. Described as ‘the most unconventional collection for Georg Jensen yet’, the four stainless steel products invite you to explore the flowing of water, oil, sugar and salt.
